AOBA's Highest Honor Presented to Michael Federici

Michael Federici, President of Kay Apartment Communities, was honored at AOBA's Annual Meeting on Jan. 27, 2010 with the Sidney Glassman Memorial Award, AOBA's most prestigious honor. The award honors the legacy of Sidney Glassman, an executive with the Charles E. Smith Company, who was a key architect of today's property management practices.

A past President and active member of the AOBA Board of Directors, Federici has been an invaluable resource to the Association for the past decade and has contributed significantly to the multifamily industry in the region.

"Mike's long-standing personal and corporate commitment to supporting AOBA's government affairs work alone qualifies him to be honored with this award. However, his commitment to AOBA and the industry goes far beyond his advocacy work. It includes a strong commitment to AOBA's community and charitable programs," noted 2009 award recipient Rich Greninger, Carr Realty Partners, who made the presentation. ##
